This position may be filled either as a museum specialist (1016 series) or as a horticulturist (0437 series), as both types of professionals bring valuable perspectives to this unique position.

Major Duties:

This position is located at the U.S. National Arboretum, Agricultural Research Services. The successful candidate will serve as the curator of the National Bonsai and Penjing Museum at the Arboretum. The maintenance, development, and research of the assigned collections is an integral part of the Arboretum's education mission to present all phases of ornamental horticulture to public, academic, and commercial audiences. The incumbent will be responsible for the specialized horticultural and design techniques required to grow and display the assigned collections and the gardens in which they are displayed. This includes watering, pruning, fertilizing and propagating of plant material and observing specialized, detailed plant growth characteristics. Evaluates the status of bonsai and penjing specimens to preserve the original intent in styling and development of each piece. Works closely with Education and Visitor Services in developing and coordinating public programs and exhibits as they relate to the incumbent's expertise and in developing interpretive materials for the collections. Develops and maintains proper curatorial practices including complete inventories of all plants in the designated collections.

Qualifications Required: Your education and experience will be evaluated against all qualification requirements (basic and any additional requirements) listed below.

Basic Requirements

Museum Specialist, GS-1016: The candidate must demonstrate experience related to the operation or management of a museum or similar collection of valuable objects. Examples of qualifying specialized experience may include collections management, registration, cataloging, research, preservation, restoration, or conservation of collections of museum material. (see Selective Placement Factor)

A candidate for this position may also meet the basic qualification requirements by satisfying the selective placement factor AND having appropriate related education as shown below.

For the GS-9: Two full academic years of progressively higher level graduate education OR master's or equivalent graduate degree related to this position.

For the GS-11: Three full years of progressively higher level graduate education or Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral degree.

Horticulturist, GS-0437:

You must meet either A or B as follows:

A. Possess a degree in horticulture or a related discipline of basic plant science that included at least 30 semester hours in the basic plant sciences, of which at least 16 semester hours were in horticultural subjects, such as those dealing with breeding, care, management, production, and post harvest handling of horticultural crops; OR

B. Possess a combination of education and experience - courses equivalent to a major in horticulture or a related discipline of basic plant science that included course work as shown in A above, plus appropriate experience or additional education.

This position has a positive education requirement. You must provide a copy of your academic transcripts OR a list of college courses with credit hours, dates completed, and grades received to verify education when applying for this position. If this information is not provided, your education may not be appropriately evaluated, and you may lose consideration for this position.

If you are selected for this position, you will have to provide an official copy of your transcripts prior to entering on duty.

Time-In-Grade Restrictions apply for all candidates considered under Merit Promotion/Alternative Merit Promotion.

Specialized Experience - experience which has equipped you with the following Knowledge, Skills and Abilities - 'KSAs' required to perform the duties of this position:

Applicants for this position, regardless of series, must possess one year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level in the federal service. Specialized experience is typically in or directly related to the work of the position to be filled and that has equipped the applicant with the knowledge, skills, and abilities required to perform successfully the duties of this position.

1. Skill in training and styling bonsai and penjing without compromising the original design intent.
2. Knowledge of security issues related to valuable objects.
3. Ability to assemble exhibits and displays of bonsai, penjing, and related art forms.

4. Other Important Information

Benefits Package:

A Benefits Package is authorized for this position. Additional information about Federal benefits can be obtained at www.usajobs.opm.gov/ei61.htm.
